CODE OF CONDUCT

SONIC REVOLUTION PANEL RULES:

- 1) Be kind and courteous! This event is for everyone and is open to everyone, so be nice to everyone, be it our crew, guests, and fellow attendees.
- 2) This is a family friendly event! Aka. keep language, postings, topics, etc. age appropriate. NSFW, touchy topics (politics, religion, outside drama etc.), and other such topics stay out.
- 3) Don't spam! Repetitive message spam will not be tolerated by our crew or the guests/attendees.
- 4) Keep content in their appropriate channels! Art postings stay in the art channels, general conversation remains in the general channels, etc.(NOTICE: THIS SERVER IS A NON AI ZONE. DO NOT POST AI GENERATED CONTENT HERE.)
- 5) Follow Discord's TOS and Community Guidelines! This event is hosted on Discord's platform so be sure to adhere to its rules. (<https://discord.com/terms>)
- 6) Listen to our mods! They have been hand picked for a reason, to keep this server and event safe and fun for all.
- 7) Don't be a disturbance! Even if you're not breaking the rules listed above, but are still causing a general disturbance to the attendees, guests, etc. (trolling, side-stepping, etc.), you can still get in trouble.

Do NOT ask, beg, spam, or DM ANY of the panel guests, mods, hosts, or cohorts to be picked. We pick randomly to ensure that everyone has a fair chance to be picked. If you do any of these things we will avoid picking you for the panel and we will be more likely to avoid picking you in future panels as well.

Likewise, we cannot guarantee that we will get to everyone in the given timeframe. Please understand that we have a limited time and if we do not get to your question it is nothing personal. If you make a fuss or complain about not getting picked, then we will avoid picking you in the future.

These panels are about a focused topic, please keep all discussion, chat, and stage VC related to the topic or the guest featured.

Please, do NOT use the panel to self-promote, that includes voice acting, art, videos or any content/media you create, as it takes the time and spotlight of our guests and panelists that are inside the server. Feel free to post in self-promo-studios

Please have your questions ready BEFORE you join the stage, we cannot wait for you to be ready as we only have so much time for these panels.

If it is a guest panel, please direct all questions to the guest and NOT to the Host or Moderators.

Normal Sonic Revolution chat rules apply, keep things family friendly and use common sense.

Do not ask your question as an OC or a voice impression from "another universe," this comes off as if you're trying to roleplay. Check out roleplay-text and the roleplay VC to have some fun!

For fairness it is one question per person, if we have time to do a second round of questions we will let you know.

If you are unable to voice your question feel free to ask in text and ping one of the moderators with your questions.

If the featured guest is a voice actor, do not request a voice impression unless it was stated to be ok by the mods before the panel.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

SONIC REVOLUTION PANEL RULES:

Please don't repeat what chat mods say in the text chat. We understand you're trying to help spread the message but the chat mods are there for a reason. They can handle it so don't worry!

Wait until you have a question to raise your hand in the stage channel. If you get called up just to talk about things that are not relevant to the current panel, you will get moved back to the audience without warning, and may not have another chance to ask for that panel.

If you fail to follow these rules and guidelines in addition to normal Sonic Revolution rules, we will not hesitate to remove you from the stage and as punishment we will not call on you for the remainder of the panel.

Likewise if you continue to break rules after being warned or removed from stage we in discussion chat you will receive a chat timeout for the duration of the panel. We want these panels to be fair and fun for everyone.

In other words:

If you break rules on stage you will be removed immediately and will not be called upon for the duration of the panel.

In the discussion chat you will receive ONE and ONLY ONE warning. If you continue to break the rules you will be timed out for the remainder of the panel and you will not be called upon for the panel stage.

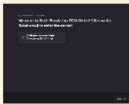

Thank you in advance for reading and following these rules and we hope you enjoy the panels!
